

The Pastor's Pen

Thank you... Thank you, is the expression my family and I have used over and over these first few weeks at FBC. The warmth and love felt from this congregation over our period of transition has been nothing short of Holy-Spirit inspired. As many of you have experienced, it's never easy uprooting your family and moving to a new city, a new school, a new community and a new church; however, the members here at FBC and the Savannah area have truly given us solid footing to stand on.

Please continue to pray for the closing of our home in Neosho at the beginning of October and for our family to secure a house here in the Savannah very soon. While the morning and afternoon commute gives us plenty of "quality family time" in the car together, living in a two-room basement definitely has its challenges...

I would also ask that you pray for our church, as a whole, as we continue to get acclimated here at FBC. I believe God has big plans for this church and that this fall, on into the new year, will bring some great changes and blessings.

Again, thank you for your love and support as we begin this new season of ministry together.

Through His Grace,

Jason
